Stevia Rebaudioside A 98% is a natural plant based sweetener. This Stevia contains Rebaudioside A, which is commonly known to be the sweetest of all the natural compounds in the stevia leaf. Rebaudioside A is more than 200-300 times sweeter than sugar and is of the purest extracts. Its natural sweetness makes it a good choice to add in to powder or liquid form to increase sweetening strength and improve taste.
