Organic Maqui Berry powder is an ACO certified berry sourced from Chile. This Maqui Berry contains an abundance of phenolic compounds such as anthocyanins. These anthocyanins are present in the leaves and fruit of the Maqui Berry and are known to reduce oxidative stress therefore the antioxidants have been shown to aid in preventing various diseases. The physical, chemical, biological and organoleptic properties are locked in and preserved in the Maqui Berry powder due to the proprietary freeze drying process. The Organic Maqui Berry Powder is a great addition to any food or beverage product.
